

Véronique Decaix, Christina Thomsen Thörnqvist, (eds)

MEMORY AND RECOLLECTION IN THE ARISTOTELIAN TRADITION
Essays on the Reception of Aristotle's De memoria et reminiscencia

Studia Artistarum (SA 47), Brepols, 2021 (266 p.)

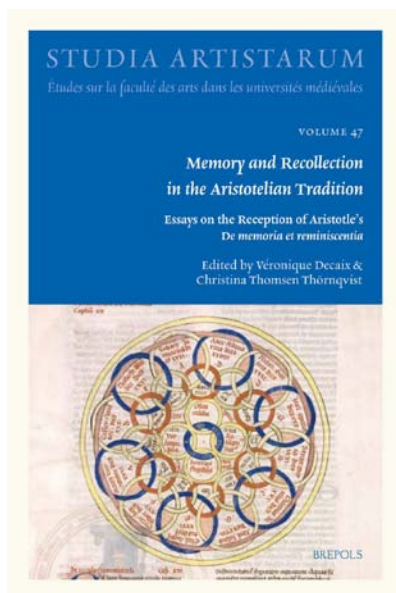

TABLE DES MATIÈRES

CHRISTINA THOMSEN THÖRNQVIST : Preface

VÉRONIQUE DECAIX : Introduction

MIKA PERÄLÄ : Aristotle's Three Questions about Memory

ALEXANDRA MICHALEWSKI : Writing in the Soul. On Some Aspects of Recollection in Plotinus

TOMMASO ALPINA : Retaining, Remembering, Recollecting. Avicenna's Account of Memory and Its Sources

CARLA DI MARTINO : Mémoire, représentation et signification chez Averroès. Une proposition de lecture

JOËL CHANDELIER : Memory, Avicenna and the Western Medical Tradition

JULIE BRUMBERG-CHAUMONT : *The First Latin Reception of the De memoria et reminiscencia :
Memory and Recollection as Julie Brumberg-Chaumont, Apprehensive Faculties or as Moving Faculties ?*

VÉRONIQUE DECAIX : What Is Memory of? Albert the Great on the Proper Object of Memory

STEN EBBESEN : Memory Is of the Past

CHRISTINA THOMSEN THÖRNQVIST : Aristotle and His Early Latin Commentators on Memory and Motion in Sleep

DAFNI ARGYRI : The Byzantine Reception of Aristotle's De memoria

BIBLIOGRAPHY,

INDEX